

Mojave National Preserve

Programs are about 45 minutes long.

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Kelso Depot Information Center is now open!

Built in 1924 by the Union Pacific Railroad, the Kelso Depot has been transformed into Mojave National Preserve's principal information center, with museum exhibits, historically furnished rooms, a theater, and bookstore.

- Location: 35 miles south of Baker, California.
From I-15, exit at Kelbaker Road and drive south 35 miles to Kelso.
From I-40, exit at Kelbaker Road and drive north 22 miles to Kelso.
- Hours: Thursday through Sunday, 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.
Closed Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday.
The Kelso Depot will be open every day starting in March, 2006.
- Services: Restrooms and water are available at Kelso Depot.
Drinks and limited snacks are available at Cima, 19 miles northeast of Kelso on Kelso-Cima Road.
Gasoline is available on I-15 at Baker and at the Cima Road exit, and on I-40 at Ludlow and Fenner.
- Information: Weekdays, call 760-252-6101.
Weekends, call 760 928-2572.